COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION¹

This course is designed to introduce students to concepts of financial literacy in order to support them in their interactions with business clients and practice management. The course is not intended to make students into tax or accounting specialists. The focus is on basic financial accounting techniques, the preparation of financial statements along with consideration of some current issues in financial reporting, the application of financial statement analysis tools, the basics of business valuation, selected income tax topics relevant to professionals and their clients, and financial accounting, management and control issues as they relate to professional services firms.

PRE-REQUISITE KNOWLEDGE

This course is designed for learners with no or limited business background. Learners will have a university-level degree and it is anticipated that many of them will have experience in the workforce.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES (CLO)

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- CLO 1: Interpret a financial statement and other presentations of financial performance (e.g. non-GAAP measures).
- CLO 2: Illustrate common accounting errors and misstatements and their remediation.
- CLO 3: Recognize the implications of current accounting issues and recent developments in a given situation.
- CLO 4: Apply simple valuation concepts and considerations.
- CLO 5: Demonstrate an introductory level of awareness of common business income tax issues.

ASSESSMENT DESCRIPTIONS

Exercises

There are nine exercises to complete in the course. The exercises are short tasks designed to help you apply your learning, reflect on your skills, and provide feedback to the instructor. More details about exercises are on the class website.

Short Assignments

There are two short assignments in this course. Each assignment will present you with a scenario to which you must respond using the concepts presented in the course. More details about these assignments are on the class website.

Discussion Forum: Media Literacy

There are two individual discussion forum activities for you to complete. Each discussion activity spans two weeks. In the first week, you must review a relevant news article that connects with the course content and post a response to the question posed by the instructor in relation to the article. In the second week, you must engage in discussion about your response with other students. More details about this assignment are on the class website.

Team Assignment: Financial Statement Analysis

For this assignment, you will work in teams of three to compare companies employing financial statement analysis techniques. Your team must draw preliminary conclusions about each company's financial performance and financial condition based on the analysis. You will be encouraged to make connections between the results of your analysis and the business strategy of the company concerned. This exercise will provide experience in applying the course concepts to real-world contexts. More details about this assignment are on the class website.

M&A Transaction Simulation

For this assignment, you will be provided with a short case about entrepreneurs looking to sell their company. You have been invited to look at certain financial information and undertake a limited amount of due diligence to determine whether you might be interested in acquiring their business. Your task is to produce a non-binding letter of intent conveying a proposed transaction price, deal structure, and justification for your proposal. More details about this assignment are on the class website.

Law Firm Financial Management Case

For this final assignment, you will be provided with a case study that indicates some financial management issues at a law firm. Your task is to identify the issues and propose possible solutions for consideration. This exercise will serve to bring together important concepts from throughout the course. More details about this assignment are on the class website.

LATE POLICY

In the event of extenuating circumstances, you may request an extension to an assignment due date without penalty. Requests must be made to your instructor prior to the original due date of the assignment, and some substantiating documentation is often required. Note that unacceptable reasons include malfunctioning computer, travel plans to go home for holidays, generally behind on schoolwork, etc. In the absence of substantiating documentation, the normal late penalty will apply as described in the assignment details or departmental policies.

GRADING

All assessments in this course will receive numerical percentage marks. The final grade you receive for the course will be derived by converting any numerical grades to letter grades according to Queen's Law Grade Conversion Scale and may be adjusted according to the Queen's Law Grading Policy.

Feedback on Assessments

The instructor and/or teaching assistants will provide feedback on assessments within seven to ten days of the due date.

Accessing Your Final Grade

Your final grades will show on SOLUS. Official transcripts showing final grades will be available on the Official Grade Release Date. Please note that in official transcripts, a mark of IN (incomplete) is considered a grade, and your transcript is released with this grade.

COURSE COMMUNICATION

QUESTIONS ABOUT COURSE MATERIAL

Questions or comments regarding the course material should be posted in the Q&A forum on the class website. The instructor and students are encouraged to answer these questions directly in the discussion forum for the benefit of everyone in the course.

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The instructor will routinely post course announcements in the Announcements section on the main course homepage. Please sign up to be automatically notified by e-mail or text message when new information is posted. Instructions on how to modify your notifications are found in the Begin Here modules of the class website.

OFFICE HOURS

In addition to interaction in the Q&A discussion forum, the instructor will be available for office hours on Tuesdays from 5:00-9:00 PM (ET) and Thursdays from 1:00-4:00 PM (ET). Please contact the instructor to arrange a meeting method (e.g. skype, phone) or location.

CONFIDENTIAL MATTERS

If you have a confidential matter you would like to discuss with your instructor, their contact details are on the first page of this document. Expect e-mail replies within 48 hours and in some cases within 24 hours.

QUEEN'S E-MAIL

The university communicates with students via Queen's e-mail. Please check your Queen's e-mail regularly to ensure you do not miss important information related to your course.

NETIQUETTE

During this course, you may communicate with your peers and teaching team through electronic communication. Remember to use the utmost respect in your dealings with your colleagues or when participating in activities, discussion, and online communication.

Following is a list of netiquette guidelines. Please read them carefully and use them to guide your communication in this course and beyond.

1. Make a personal commitment to learn about, understand, and support your peers.
2. Assume the best of others and expect the best of them.
3. Acknowledge the impact of oppression on the lives of other people and make sure your writing is respectful and inclusive.
4. Recognize and value the experiences, abilities, and knowledge each person brings.
5. Pay close attention to what your peers write before you respond. Think through and re-read your writings before you post or send them to others.
6. It's alright to disagree with ideas, but do not make personal attacks.
7. Be open to be challenged or confronted on your ideas and challenge others with the intent of facilitating growth. Do not demean or embarrass others.
8. Encourage others to develop and share their ideas.

COURSE FEEDBACK

At various points during the course, you may be asked to take part in a variety of feedback activities, such as questionnaires, exit tickets, and surveys. This feedback enables the teaching team to make any adjustments necessary to improve the learning environment. Surveys administered throughout the course are anonymous and directly related to activities, assessments, and other course material.

Your input is essential for maintaining and improving the quality of this course material for future offerings (e.g., course content, writing errors, assignments, readings, course design). Please e-mail additional comments to your instructor at any time.
